

Advance Special

The Advance Special is one way you can support particular ministries through voluntary, designated, second-mile giving.

- To learn more about The Advance click here.

There are certain missionaries and ministry projects that the people of Louisiana have traditionally supported in this type of giving and these project numbers are included on our Advance Special Giving Form. However, any advance can be listed on this form.

To obtain an Advance Special Giving Report Form, click here. Send the completed form, along with your check payable to the address listed on the form. The church can send this money when it sends its regular Apportionment payment, if it wishes to do so.

Special Sundays

There are a number of Sundays throughout the year in which particular ministries are celebrated and special offerings are taken. The Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) recommends these Sundays each year, and the Annual Conference votes on this recommendation in adopting the CFA report. The list below has these Sundays listed for the time period from Annual Conference 2015 – Annual Conference 2016. For additional information on the General Church Special Sundays, which are those marked with an *, click here.
