

Louisiana Conference Day of Prayer March 11, 2016

The United Methodist Church will hold its quadrennial General Conference from May 10-20, 2016 in Portland, Oregon. In preparation for this important time of holy conferencing, the Council of Bishops called for a time of prayer during the 131 days leading up to the beginning of General Conference. Each annual conference has been invited to host a 24-hour prayer vigil in the hopes that our collective prayers will surround church leaders and delegates with support.

This special day of prayer for the Louisiana Conference is March 11. This coming together of United Methodists in prayer will help to strengthen and unify all of us—those attending General Conference and those throughout our conference and the denomination—as we continue to work together to fulfill our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

You are invited to join laity and clergy from throughout the Louisiana Conference in lifting prayers on March 11.

Our prayers will join with those of United Methodists throughout the denomination and from around the world as a way of preparing our hearts and minds for the 2016 General Conference in May.
